Of the Christ who died for me,
How he left his home in glory,
For the cross on Calvary.

- Cно.—Yes, I'll sing the wondrousstory

Some sweet day, some sweet day;
We shall cross the stormy tide
Some sweet day, some sweet day;

-W. A. Ogden.

I was wandering and weary
When my Saviour came unto me;
For the ways of sin grew dreary,
And the world had ceased to woo me;
And I thought I heard him say,
As he came along his way,

Сно.—O wand'ring souls, come near !: My sheep should never fear me, : || I am the Shepherd true.

2 At first I would not hearken, And put off till the morrow; But life began to darken, And I was sick with sorrow; Still I thought I heard him say, As he came along his way,

3 At last I stopped to listen,
His voice could not deceive me;
I saw his kind eyes glisten,
So anxious to relieve me.
I was sure I heard him say,
As he came along his way,

4 He took me on his shoulder, And tenderly he kissed me; He bade my love be bolder, And said how he had missed me; Then I heard him sweetly say, As he went along his way,

5 I thought his love would weaken, As more and more he knew me; But it burneth like a beacon, And its light and heat go thro' me. And I ever hear him say, As he goes along his way,

6 Let us do, then, dearest brothers, What will best and longest please us, Follow not the ways of others,

And trust ourselves to Jesus.

We shall ever hear him say,
As he goes along his way,
—F. W. Faber.

In the morning; When our golden sheaves we bring To the feet of Christ our King, What a chorus we shall sing

In the morning.

Till the morning; Then our highest tribute raise For the love that crowns our days, And to Jesus give the praise

REST to the weary soul

And aching breast is given, Down where the living waters flow; Grace makes the wounded whole,

Love fills our heart with heaven, Down where the living waters flow.

CHO.—Down where the living waters flow, Down where the tree of life doth grow, I'm living in the light, for Jesus and the right, Down where the living waters flow.

That Christ to earth has brought, Down where the living waters flow.

THERE are songs of joy that I loved to sing, When my heart was as blithe as a bird in spring;

CHO.— : O, the new, new song!: I can sing it now with the ransomed throng: Power and dominion to him that shall reign;

Glory and praise to the Lamb that was slain. 2 There are strains of home that are dear as life.

And I list to them oft 'mid the din of strife; But I know of a home that is wondrous fair, And I sing the psalm they are singing there.

3 Can my lips be mute, or my heart be sad, When the gracious Master hath made me glad? When he points where the many mansions And sweetly says, "there is one for thee?"

4 I shall catch the gleam of its jasper wall When I come to the gloom of the evenfall, For I know that the shadows, dreary and dim.

A RULER once came to Jesus by night, To ask him the way of salvation and light; The Master made answer in words true and "Ye must be born again." [plain, CHO.—: Ye must be born again,: I verily, verily, say unto thee, Ye must be born again.

2 Ve children of men, attend to the word So solemnly uttered by Jesus the Lord, And let not this message to you be in vain, "Ye must be born again."

-W. T. Sleeper.

Kev F. Oн, the clanging bells of Time! Night and day they never cease; We are wearied with their chime, For they do not bring us peace; And we hush our breath to hear, And we strain our eyes to see If thy shores are drawing near,—

2 Oh, the clanging bells of Time! How their changes rise and fall, But in undertone sublime,

Eternity! eternity!

Sounding clearly thro' them all, Is a voice that must be heard,

As our moments onward flee, And it speaketh aye one word,— Eternity! eternity!

Oh, the clanging bells of Time! To their voices, loud and low, In a long, unresting line

We are marching to and fro; And we yearn for sight or sound Of the life that is to be, For thy breath doth wrap usround,— Eternity! eternity!

Oh, the clanging bells of Time! Soon their notes will all be dumb. And in joy and peace sublime, We shall feel the silence come;

And our souls their thirst will slake. And our eyes the King will see, When thy glorious morn shall break,~ Eternity! eternity!

-Mrs. Ellen M. H. Gates.

Key Bb.

JESUS calls thee, wand'rer, come, Calls to-day, calls to-day; Longs to bid thee welcome home, Home to-day, home to-day; Wondrous love his heart doth feel Wondrous love he would reveal, For his own thy life would seal, Seal to-day, seal to-day.

CHO.—Come to-day, come to-day, Hear the blessed Saviour say: I will cleanse thy sins away; Why delay? why delay?

2 Patiently he waits for thee, Waits to-day, waits to-day, Offers full salvation free, Free to-day, free to-day; Wouldst thou know his saving grace? Wouldst thou feel his strong embrace, Thro' thy life his favor trace? Yield to-day, yield to-day.

3 He will cleanse your sins away, All away, all away; Why delay the glorious day? Why delay? why delay? Oh, the joy you might receive If on him you would believe, Thought nor fancy can conceive: Don't delay, don't delay.

4 Now he pleads with tender voice, Pleads to-day, pleads to-day, Make his love your sacred choice, Choose to-day, choose to-day; Shall his pleading be refused? Shall his mercy be abused? Come, by grace divine enthused, Come to day, come to-day. -Rev. John Love, Jr.

Key G.

To-DAY the Redeemer is calling, He offers his pardon and love, He's "able to keep you from falling, Presenting you faultless" above.

Сно.—How long will you keep Jesus waiting?

To-day he commands you to choose; He offers a perfect salvation, And you must accept or refuse.

- The world and its pleasures are plead.
 The tempter is making his claim,
 But Jesus is now interceding,
 And longing to call you by name.
- 3 Why linger in Satan's dominions? Your doubtand your waiting are vain, Fear not to meet scorn and derision, The Saviour will keep and sustain.
- 4 Howsoon will you make the decision? Oh, what will you gain by delay? While halting between two opinions, Your life is fast passing away.
- 5 'Tis Jesus the Lord and Redeemer Who asks you this moment to choose; Be earnest, O trifler and dreamer! A kingdom and crown you may lose.

 —Julia H. Johnston.

"NEARER the cross!" my heart can say, I am coming nearer,
Nearer the cross from day to day,
I am coming nearer;
Nearer the cross where Jesus died,
Nearer the fountain's crimson tide,
Nearer my Saviour's wounded side,
||: I am coming nearer.:||

- 2 Nearer the Christain's mercy seat, I am coming nearer,
 Feasting my soul on manna sweet,
 I am coming nearer;
 Stronger in faith, more clear I see
 Jesus who gave himself for me;
 Nearer to him I still would be,
 ||: Still I'm coming nearer.:||
- 3 Nearer in prayer my hope aspires.
 I am coming nearer,
 Deeper the love my soul desires,
 I am coming nearer,
 Nearer the end of toil and care,
 Nearer the joy I long to share,
 Nearer the crown I soon shall wear:
 ||:I am coming nearer.:||-F. J. Crosby.

THERE'S nothing like the old, old story,
Grace is free, grace is free!

Which saints and martyrs tell in glory, Grace is free, grace is free! [flame. It brought them thro' the flood and By it they fought and overcame, And now they cry thro' his dear name,

Grace is free, grace is free! [story, Cho.—There's nothing like the old, old

Grace is free, grace is free! Which saints and martyrs tell in glory, Grace is free, grace is free!

- 2 There's only hope in trusting Jesus, Grace is free, grace is free!
 From sin that doomed hedied to free us, Grace is free, grace is free!
 Who would not tell the story sweet
 Of love so wondrous, so complete,
 And fall in rapture at his feet,
 Grace is free, grace is free!
- 3 From age to age the theme is telling, Grace is free, grace is free! [swelling, From shore to shore the strains are Grace is free, grace is free! And when that time shall cease to be, And faith is crowned with victory, 'Twill sound thro' all eternity, Grace is free, grace is free!

 —Emma M, Johnston

I HAVE found the Saviour precious,
And I love him more and more;
He has rolled away my burden,
And my mourning days are o'er;
I have found the Saviour precious,
And I find him precious still;
All my life is consecrated
To his service and his will.

- Сно.—I have taken up the cross,
 And will never lay it down
 Till I see his face in glory,
 And receive a starry crown.
- 2 I have found the Saviour precious, And, wherever I may go, I will bear the royal standard, And its colors I will show;

I am ready, if he calls me.
In the battle front to stand;
I am ready—yes, and waiting—
To fulfil my Lord's command.

I have found the Saviour precious;
Hallelujah! praise his name!
To a mansion in his kingdom
Through his grace the right I claim.
I have found the Saviour precious;
He has proved my dearest friend;
And my faith can trust his promise
Of protection to the end.

-James S. Apple.

30 Key Eb.

On the happy, golden shore, Where the faithful part no more, When the storms of life are o'er,

Meet me there;
Where the night dissolves away
Into pure and perfect day,
I am going home to stay,
Meet me there.

CHO.—||: Meet me there,:||
Where the tree of life is blooming,
Meet me there;
When the storms of life are o'er,
On the happy, golden shore,
Where the faithful part no more,
Meet me there.

2 Here our fondest hopes are vain, Dearest links are rent in twain; But in heav'n no throb of pain,

Meet me there;
By the river sparkling bright,
In the city of delight,
Where our faith is lost in sight,
Meet me there.

Where the harps of angels ring, And the blest forever sing, In the palace of the King,

Meet me there;
Where in sweet communion blend
Heart with heart, and friend with

31 Key G.

Cast thy bread upon the waters, Ye who have but scant supply. Angel eyes will watch above it;—You shall find it by and by! He who in his righteous balance Doth each human action weigh Will your sacrifice remember, Will your loving deeds repay.

2 Cast thy bread upon the waters, Poor and weary, worn with care.— Often sitting in the shadow, Have you not a crumb to spare?

Can you not to those around you Sing some little song of hope, As you look with longing vision Thro' faith's mighty telescope?

3 Cast thy bread upon the waters, Ye who have abundant store; It may float on many-a billow, It may strand on many-a shore; You may think it lost forever, But, as sure as God is true, In this life or in the other, It will yet return to you.

4 Cast thy bread upon the waters, Far and wide your treasures strew Scatter it with willing fingers, Shout for joy to see it go! For if you do closely keep it, It will only drag you down; If you love it more than Jesus, It will keep you from your crown.

5 Cast thy bread upon the waters,
Waft it on with praying breath,
In some distant, doubtful moment
It may save a soul from death;
When you sleep in solemn silence,
'Neath the morn and evening dew,
Stranger hands, which you have strengthened,
May strew lilies over you.

32 Key F,

 Upon the dark mountains they stumble, They are bruised on the rock as they lie With white, pleading faces turned upward, To the clouds and the pitiful sky. There is many a lamp that is lighted— We behold them anear and afar; But not many among them, my brother, Shine steadily on like a star.

3 If once all the lamps that are lighted Should steadily blaze in a line, Wide over the land and the ocean,

What a girdle of glory would shine!

While Jesus whispers to you, Come, sinner, come!
While we are praying for you, Come, sinner, come!
Now is the time to own him, Come, sinner, come!
Now is the time to know him, Come, sinner, come!

- 2 Are you too heavy laden?

DEPTH of mercy! can there be Mercy still reserved for me? Can my God his wrath forbear,—Me, the chief of sinners, spare?

- 2 I have long withstood his grace; Long provoked him to his face; Would not hearken to his calls; Grieved him by a thousand falls.
- 3 Now incline me to repent; Let me now my sins lament; Now my foul revolt deplore, Weep, believe, and sin no more.
- 4 Kindled his relentings are;
 Me he now delights to spare;
 Cries, "how shall I give thee up?"
 Lets the lifted thunder drop.
- 5 There for me the Saviour stands, Shows his wounds and spreads his God is love! I know, I feel; [hands; Jesus weeps, and loves me still. —C. Wesley.

115 Key G.

ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed? And did my Sovereign die? Would he devote that sacred head For such a worm as I?

Сно.—I do believe, I now believe, That Jesus died for me; And thro' his blood, his precious blood, I shall from sin be free.

2 Was it for crimes that I have done He groaned upon the tree? Amazing pity! grace unknown!

And love beyond degree.

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,

When God, the mighty Maker, died For man, the creature's, sin.

- 4 Thus might I hide my blushing face While his dear cross appears;
 Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
- And melt mine eyes to tears.

 5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay

The debt of love I owe; Here, Lord, I give myself away,— 'Tis all that I can do.

-I. Watts.

116 O Jesus, Lord, thy dying love

Hath pierced my contrite heart; Now take my life, and let me prove How dear to me thou art.

CHO.—At the cross, at the cross,

Where I first saw the light, [way, And the burden of my heart rolled a-It was there by faith I received my sight.

And now I am happy night and day!

2 Amid the night of sin and death Thy light hath filled my soul; To me thy loving voice now saith, Thy faith hath made thee whole.

3 I kiss thy feet, I clasp thy hand, I touch thy bleeding side; Oh, let me here forever stand, Where thou wast crucified.

4 My Lord, my light, my strength, my I count my gain but loss; [all,] Forever let thy love enthrall, And keep me at the cross.

R. Kelso Carter.

Key G. O HAPPY day, that fixed my choice On thee, my Saviour and my God! Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad.

CHO.—Happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away! He taught me how to watch and pray, And live rejoicing ev'ry day; Happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away.

2 O happy bond, that seals my vows To him who merits all my love! Let cheerful anthems fill his house, While to that sacred shrine I move.

3 'Tis done! the great transaction's Iammy Lord's, and he is mine: [done! He drew me, and I followed on, Charmed to confess that voice divine.

4 Now rest, my long-divided heart; Fixed on this blissful center, rest; Nor ever from thy Lord depart;

Key G. 15 High heav'n that heard the solemn vow. That yow renewed shall daily hear, Till in life's latest hour I bow. And bless in death a bond so dear. -P. Doddridge.

WHILE we bow in thy name. Oh, meet us again, Fill our hearts with the light of thy love; May the Spirit of grace, And the smiles of thy face, Gently fall on us now from above.

OH, how happy are they Who the Saviour obey, And have laid up their treasures above; Tongue can never express The sweet comfort and peace Of a soul in its earliest love.

Сно.—It is good to be here, It is good to be here, our fear. Thy perfect love now drives away all And light streaming down Makes the pathway all clear, With him of every good possessed. It is good for us, Lord, to be here.

- 2 That sweet comfort was mine, When the favor divine
- I received thro' the blood of the Lamb; When my heart first believed, What a joy I received—

What a heaven in Jesus' name!

3 'Twas a heaven below My Redeemer to know,

And the angels could do nothing more
Than to fall at his feet,
And the story repeat,

And the Lover of sinners adore.

4 Jesus, all the day long,
Was my joy and my song;
Oh, that all his salvation might see;
He hath loved me, I cried,
He hath suffered and died,
To redeem even rebels like me.

120 Key G.

"TILL he come!" oh, let the words Linger on the trembling chords; Let the "little while" between In their golden light be seen; Let us think how heaven and home Lie beyond that "till he come!"

- When the weary ones we love Enter on that rest above, When the words of love and cheer Fall no longer on our ear, Hush! be ev'ry murmur dumb, It is only "till he come!"
- 3 Clouds and darkness round us press; Would we have one sorrow less? All the sharpness of the cross, All that tells the world is loss, Death, and darkness, and the tomb, Pain us only "till he come!"
- 4 See, the feast of love is spread,
 Drink the wine and eat the bread;
 Sweet memorials, till the Lord
 Call us round his heavenly board,
 Some from earth, from glory some,
 Severed only "till he come!"

MUST Jesus bear the cross alone, And all the world go free? No, there's a cross for ev'ry one, And there's a cross for me.

- 2 How happy are the saints above, Who once went sorrowing here! But now they taste unmingled love, And joy without a tear.
- 3 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
 Till death shall set me free;
 And then go home my crown to wear,
 For there's a crown for me.

- I-was once far away from the Saviour, And as vile as a sinner could be, I wondered if Christ the Redeemer Could save a poor sinner like me.
- 2 I wandered on in the darkness, Not a ray of light could I see, And the thought filled my heart with sadness, There's no hope for a sinner like me.
- 3 I then fully trusted in Jesus, And oh, what a joy came to me; My heart was filled with his praises,

My heart was filled with his praise For saving a sinner like me.

4 No longer in darkness I'm walking. For the light is now shining on me, And now unto others I'm telling, How he saved a poor sinner like me. 5 And when life's journey is over,
And I the dear Saviour shall see,
I'll praise him for ever and ever,
For saving a sinner like me.

3 Oh, thou who died on Calvary, To save my soul and make me free, I consecrate my life to thee, My Saviour and my God!

WHAT a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Ev'rything to God in prayer!

O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear, All because we do not carry Ev'rything to God in prayer!

2 Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3 Are we weak and heavy laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Saviour, still our refuge,—
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?

O LOVE divine, how sweet thou art!
When shall I find my willing heart
All taken up by thee?
I thirst, I faint, I die to prove
The greatness of redeeming love,
The love of Christ to me.

2 Stronger his love than death or hell; Its riches are unsearchable:

The first-born sons of light
Desire in vain its depths to see;
They cannot reach the mystery,
The length, the breadth, the height.

3 God only knows the love of God; O that it now were shed abroad In this poor stony heart! For love I sigh, for love I pine;

This only portion, Lord, be mine;
Be mine this better part.

4 O that I could forever sit
With Mary at the Master's feet!
Be this my happy choice;
My only care, delight, and bliss,
My joy, my heaven on earth, be this,
To hear the Bridegroom's voice.

5 O that I could, with favored John, Recline my weary head upon The dear Redeemer's breast! From care, and sin, and sorrow free, Give me, O Lord, to find in thee

My everlasting rest.

D COULD I speak the matchless worth,
O could I sound the glories forth,
Which in my Saviour shine,
I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel while he sings
In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt, My ransom from the dreadful guilt Of sin, and wrath divine;

I'd sing h's glorious righteousness, In which all-perfect, heavenly dress My sou shall ever shine. 3 I'd sing the characters he bears; And all the forms of love he wears; Exalted on his throne; In loftiest songs of sweetest praise. I would to everlasting days

Make all his glories known.

4 Well, the delightful day will come When my dear Lord will bring me home, And I shall see his face; Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend, A blest eternity I'll spend, Triumphant in his grace.

The door of my heart opens wide.

365 Key Ab. Saviour, I have heard thee pleading, Passionately interceding,

Seen thy great heart broken, bleeding,

All for me, all for me; Lo, I come, the past lamenting, For the wasted years repenting, And my life henceforth presenting All for thee, all for thee.

2 Thou didst stoop in thy compassion To be found in human fashion, And endure thy nameless passion

All for me, all for me; In thy name I come believing, Of thy grace with joy receiving, And the world behind me leaving, All for thee, all for thee.

One by one we cross the river,
One by one we're passing o'er;
One by one the crowns are given
On the bright and happy shore.
Youth and childhood oft are passing
O'er the dark and rolling tide,
And the blessed Holy Spirit
Is the dying Christian's guide;
And the loving, gentle Spirit

One by one we come to Jesus,
 As we heed his gentle voice;
 One by one his vineyard enter,
 There to labor and rejoice.
 One by one sweet flowers we gather
 In the glorious work of love,—

Bears them o'er the rolling tide.

Garlands for the blessed Saviour Gather for the realms above; And the loving, gentle Spirit Bears them to our home of love.

3 One by one the heavy-laden
Sink beneath the noontide sun,
And the aged pilgrim welcomes
Evening shadows as they come;
One by one, with sins forgiven,
May we stand upon the shore,
Waiting till the blessed Spirit
Takes our hand and guides us o'er;
And the loving, gentle Spirit
Leads us to the shining shore.

I saw the reapers one by one Their sheaves in triumph bear: I knew their labor at an end, And prayed their joy to share; Be thou content, and bide thy time, I heard a voice reply,

Where deserts abundantly bloom,
And souls full of music are found,

Tasting fruits that in Canaan abound,

451 Watchman-Eb. WATCHMAN, tell us of the night, What its signs of promise are; Trav'ler, o'er yon mountain's height

Promised day of Israel. 2. Watchman, tell us of the night;

Higher yet that star ascends. Trav'ler, blessedness and light, Peace and truth, its course portends! Watchman, will its beams alone

COME, saints and sinners, hear me tell The wonders of Immanuel, Who saved me from a burning hell, And brought my soul with him to dwell, And gave me heav'nly union.

- 2 When Jesus saw me from on high, Beheld my soul in ruin lie, He looked on me with pitying eye, And said to me, as he passed by, "With God you have no union."
- 3 Then I began to weep and cry, And looked this way and that, to fly, It grieved me so that I must die; I strove salvation for to buy; But still I had no union.
- 4 But when I hated all my sin,
 My dear Redeemer took me in,
 And with his blood he wash'd me clean;
 And oh, what seasons I have seen
 Since first I felt this union!
- 5 I praised the Lord both night and day, And went from house to house to pray, And if I met one on the way, I found I'd something still to say About this heav'nly union.

ROUND Christ the great incarnate God, My arms of faith and love entwine; His blood, for ev'ry sinner spilt, Now cleanseth this poor heart of mine.

Cно.—On, ves, his blood for sinners spilt

Now cleanseth me from sin and guilt; I now have found the healing balm, In Calv'ry's precious, bleeding Lamb.

- 2 Long sin's disease oppressed my soul,— The world could give no healing balm,— But now the wondrous cure I've found, In Christ the sacrificial lamb.
- 3 A joy to unwashed souls unknown His cleansing blood has brought to And on my peaceful spirit shines [me, The light that beams from Calvary.
- 4 The virtue of my Saviour's blood To guilty souls I will proclaim, With joyful haste I'll spread abroad Jesus, the great Physician's fame. —Chas. J. Butler.

459 Ortonville-Ab.

- O FOR a closer walk with God, A calm and heavenly frame; A light to shine upon the road That leads me to the Lamb!
- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew, When first I saw the Lord? Where is the soul-refreshing view Of Jesus and his word?
- 3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed! How sweet their memory still! But they have left an aching void The world can never fill.
- 4 Return, O holy Dove, return,
 Sweet messenger of rest!
 I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
 And drove thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known, Whate'er that idol be, Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship only thee.
- 6 So shall my walk be close with God, Calm and serene my frame;
 So purer light shall mark the road
 That leads me to the Lamb,
 —C. Wesley.

BLOW ye the trumpet, blow;
The gladly solemn sound
Let all the nations know,

 Your liberty receive,
 And safe in Jesus dwell,
 And blest in Jesus live.
 The year, etc.
- 5 Ye who have sold for naught Your heritage above, Shall have it back unbought, The gift of Jesus' love. The year, etc.
- 6 The gospel trumpet hear,
 The news of heavenly grace,
 And saved from earth, appear
 Before your Saviour's face.

 O GLORIOUS hope of perfect love!
 It lifts me up to things above;
 It bears on eagles' wings;
 It gives my ravished soul a taste,
 And makes me for some moments feast
 With Jesus' priests and kings.

COME on, my partners in distress,
My comrades through the wilderness,
Who still your bodies feel;
Awhile forget your griefs and fears,
And look beyond this vale of tears,
To that celestial hill.

2 Beyond the bounds of time and space,
 Look forward to that heavenly place,
 The saints' secure abode;
 On faith's strong eagle pinions rise,
 And force your passage to the skies,
 And scale the mount of God.

3 Who suffer with our Master here, We shall before his face appear And by his side sit down; To patient faith the prize is sure, And all that to the end endure The cross, shall wear the crown.

4 Thrice blessed, bliss-inspiring hope!
It lifts the fainting spirits up,
It brings to life the dead:
Our conflicts here shall soon be past,
And you and I ascend at last,
Triumphant with our Head.

5 That great mysterious Deity
We soon with open face shall see;
The beatific sight [praise,
Shall fill the heavenly courts with
And wide diffuse the golden blaze
Of everlasting light. —C. Wesley.

Welcome, delightful morn,
Thou day of sacred rest,
We hail thy kind return,
Lord, make these moments blest;

From the low train of mortal toys We soar to reach immortal joys.

2 Now may the King descend And fill his throne of grace; Thy sceptre, Lord, extend, While saints address thy face: Let sinners feel thy quickening word, And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove!
With all thy quickening powers,
Disclose a Saviour's love,
And bless these sacred hours;
Then shall our souls new life obtain,
Nor Sabbaths be bestowed in vain.

Thou hidden source of calm repose,
Thou all-sufficient love divine,
My help and refuge from my foes,
Secure I am while thou art mine:
And lo! from sin, and grief, and shame,
I hide me, Jesus, in thy name.

2 Thy mighty name salvation is, And keeps my happy soul above: Comfort it brings, and power, and peace, And joy and everlasting love: To me, with thy great name, are given Pardon, and holiness, and heaven.

3 Jesus, my all in all thou art; My rest in toil, my ease in pain; The medicine of my broken heart; In war, my peace; in loss, my gain; My smile beneath the tyrant's frown; In shame, my glory and my crown;

4 In want, my plentiful supply;
In weakness, my almighty power;
In bonds, my perfect liberty;
My light, in Satan's darkest hour;
In grief, my joy unspeakable;
My life in death, my all in all.
—C. Wesley.

JESUS hath died that I might live,
Might live to God alone;
In him eternal life receive,
And be in spirit one.

- Saviour, I thank thee for the grace, The gift unspeakable; And wait with arms of faith to em-And all thy love to feel.

- 4 Stay, sinner, stay! the Spirit cries, Awake, and from the dead arise; Arise and plead for mercy now, And at the cross repenting bow.
- 5 Come, sinner, come! tho' guilty now, At Jesus' feet submissive bow, And freely all shall be forgiven;—Oh, come, and taste the joys of heaven.
 6 See, sinner, see! where loved ones stand, All saved in heaven—a happy band; Oh, come, and join them on that shore, Where death and parting are no more.

How do thy mercies close me round!
Forever be thy name adored;
I blush in all things to abound;
The servant is above his Lord.

- 2 Inured to poverty and pain, A suff'ring life my Master led; The Son of God, the Son of Man, He had not where to lay his head.
- 3 But lo! a place he hath prepared For me, whom watchful angels keep; Yea, he himself becomes my guard; He smooths my bed, and gives me sleep.
- 4 Jesus protects; my fears, be gone; What can the Rock of Ages move? Safe in thy arms I lay me down, Thine everlasting arms of love.
- 5 While thou art intimately nigh, Who, who shall violate my rest? Sin, earth, and hell I now defy: I lean upon my Saviour's breast.
- 6 I rest beneath the Almighty's shade;
 My griefs expire, my troubles cease;
 Thou, Lord on whom my soul is stayed,
 Wilt keep me still in perfect peace.
 —C. Wesley.

- Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear, It is not night if thou be near:
 O may no earthborn cloud arise
 To hide thee from thy servant's eyes.
- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep My wearied eyelids gently steep, Be my last thought, how sweet to rest Forever on my Saviour's breast.
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve, For without thee I cannot live; Abide with me when night is nigh, For without thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of thine Hath spurned to-day the voice divine, Now, Lord, the gracious work begin; Let him no more lie down in sin.
- 5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor With blessings from thy boundless store; Be every mourner's sleep to night, Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.
- 6 Come near and bless us when we wake, Ere thro' the world our way we take; Till in the ocean of thy love, We lose ourselves in heaven above. —John Keble,

OF him who did salvation bring, I could forever think and sing; Arise, ye needy,—he'll relieve; Arise, ye guilty,—he'll forgive.

I LOVE thy kingdom, Lord, The house of thine abode. The Church our blest Redeemer saved With his own precious blood.

2 I love thy Church, O God! Her walls before thee stand, Dear as the apple of thine eye, And graven on thy hand.

How happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven!
"This earth," he cries, "is not my place,
I seek my place in heaven,—
A country far from mortal sight;
Yet O, by faith I see
The land of rest, the saints' delight,
The heaven prepared for me."

- 2 O what a blessed hope is ours!
 While here on earth we stay;
 We more than taste the heavenly
 And antedate that day; [powers,
 We feel the resurrection near,
 Our life in Christ concealed,
 And with his glorious presence here,
 Our earthen vessels filled.
- 3 O would he more of heaven bestow, And let the vessels break, And let our ransomed spirits go To grasp the God we seek; In rapturous awe on him to gaze, Who bought the sight for me; And shout and wonder at his grace Through all eternity!

I HEARD the voice of Jesus say, "Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down Thy head upon my breast!"
I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary, and worn, and sad,
I found in him a resting-place,
And he hath made me glad.

- 2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Behold, I freely give
 The living water; thirsty one,
 Stoop down, and drink, and live!"
 I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream; [vived,
 My thirst was quenched, my soul reAnd now I live in him.
- 3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "I am this dark world's light;
 Look unto me, thy morn shall rise
 And all thy day be bright!"
 I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In him my Star, my Sun;
 And in that light of life I'll walk,
 Till all my journey's done.
